

Leigh Hobbs is an author of books for kids. I had a pleasure to be present on his meeting, with the readers and we talked about his work. Meeting with people, signing the books is also a part of a job of being a writer. In his space there are a lot of paintings of his characters.